

Relationships

Friendship

Zeynab got to know Kannika at school. They both studied Finnish and English. Very soon they became friends because they had so much to talk about. They always get along very well and have fun together. They feel they can trust each other and it's easy to talk about everything. They never argue although they may sometimes have different opinions. Zeynab appreciates Kannika's positive energy, and Kannika admires Zeynab's willingness to always do her best.

Romantic relationships

When Ella and Chris met for the first time, Ella was staying in London. They were at a dinner party and started talking. They quickly noticed that they had a lot in common. For example, their sense of humour and their values. Chris became interested in Ella and asked her out. They started dating and fell in love. Chris proposed to her and they will get married.

Before meeting Ella, Chris had been married, but his ex-wife and he started having rows. They finally decided it's best to get divorced. It was the right decision although it's always sad to end a relationship.
